PUBLIC-EDUCATION CAMPAIGNS FOR AGENCIES AND NONPROFITS

Core services

Locally adapted print masters, social graphics and captions, web/email copy, campaign calendars, editable source files and delivery records.

Who we serve

Cities and counties; utilities and special districts; state and regional agencies; nonprofits and community organizations.

Flagship offer: a focused stormwater pilot

Proposed 90-day scope: one topic, one two-sided print master, four social assets, one HTML/email asset, two consolidated revision rounds and closeout. Scope, price and schedule by written agreement.

Working approach

Approved sources and local review. A named approver. Defined formats and accessibility acceptance checks. Final proof approval. A distribution checklist and evidence log. No permit-compliance or audience-reach guarantee.

Purchasing

Send vendor documentation requirements, insurance limits, purchasing route and funding conditions. Legal entity, insurance and registration status must be confirmed before contracting. No past performance or government endorsement is claimed.
